

CONNECTICUT JOTTINGS

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS OF THE STATE.

Eastern Star Gift for Meriden Home.—A Meriden Physician Very Ill.—A suit for $5,000.—Uncle Job Case's Ninetieth Birthday.—Reported to Have Gone to Join the Black Hussars.—Meriden's Police Pension Fund.—A Waterbury's Bill of Mayors, Etc., Etc.

Meriden chapter, O. E. S., of Meriden, will soon present the Masonic home in Wallingford with a fine Bible and table, the gifts to be put in the assembly room. The various chapters of the Eastern Star are furnishing this room and Meriden chapter's gift will be in addition to the furnishings already bought. The pulpit size Bible will be bound in Turkish Morocco and will be as fine a book as can be purchased. The embossing on the cover will tell the name of the chapter that presents the book.

PROMINENT DOCTOR VERY ILL.
Dr. E. C. Newport of Meriden is dangerously ill at his home with typhoid fever. For the past week he has been unable to either eat or sleep, and his condition was held yesterday morning by Drs. Hall and Otis.

AN ARCHITECT SUE.
Bridgeport, July 31.—The suit which Attorney J. D. Toomey, Jr., threatened to bring at the time that Architect E. R. Lambert made certain statements about Charles Monahan during the contest over the license application of Frank H. Bradley to conduct a saloon at 116 Fairfield avenue, has finally been brought, and is for $5,000.

The complaint alleges that Mr. Lambert testified that the "place is a gambling house and house of prostitution, conducted by Monahan," and that the statement was false and malicious.

It also sets forth that Agnes Monahan was the owner of the place, and that she and her husband suffered a loss of reputation, and lost the good will and trade of many persons with whom they would have done business.

UNCLE JOB CASE OF SIMSBURY.
Captain Job Case of Simsbury was pleasantly remembered by the members of his family, who gathered to the number of twenty-eight Monday afternoon at the house of his son, A. G. Case, the occasion being the nineteenth anniversary of his birthday. A silver headed cane was presented to him with an appropriate inscription.

Uncle Job, although well on in years, is still able to "hoe his row" with the best of them, and probably takes and reads more papers than any man in town. His three sons served in the army during the rebellion. The youngest, Oliver C., was killed at Antietam, and the oldest, A. J. Case, of Hartford, died some years after the war. A. G. Case of this town is the only son living.

The wife of Deputy Collector George M. Phelps is Mr. Case's only daughter. A PLUCKY CONNECTICUT HORSE.

Speaking of the 2:22 trot at Cleveland Monday the Boston Globe's account says:

On his first appearance in the grand circuit at Detroit last Wednesday Red of Waranoke had been a surprise by winning when he was quite overlooked. In the 2:22 trot to-day the plucky little stallion from Connecticut furnished a second surprise by looting when he was heavily backed to win. Bassaro tripped away with the first heat in 2:18, but no one minded that, but when he repeated the performance the favorite presented him so hard, and he appeared so much exhausted at the finish, that still the New England trotter ruled the market. It was $50 for the field and $42 for Red of Waranoke before the next heat, but instead of overtaking Bassaro he fell back from the first quarter, and as the Michigan horse came home for the third time in 2:18, the favorite was a dozen lengths away.

PERHAPS HE HAS SKIPPED.
Hartford, July 31.—Prof. Joseph Abel failed to appear in the police court this morning to answer to the charge of cruelty to animals, and it is reported that he has left town en route for Germany to join his old command, the Black Hussars.

Judge John A. Stoughton, prosecuting agent for the Humane society, told a reporter that it was the intent of the society to suggest a nolle when Abel appeared in court, after cautioning him not to repeat his cruel practice of driving spurs into his horse, but his failure to appear might change the condition of things. Abel's case was first set down for yesterday, and was continued until this morning owing to his absence then.

FOUND NEAR NEW HAVEN.
The Waterbury Naturalists' club had a meeting Monday evening, which was well attended and replete with pleasant incidents. P. L. Barker, B. S., gave an interesting off-hand talk on the American crossbill, a bird peculiar to more northern latitudes than this. Miss Cass displayed a beautiful cluster of sea pinks from the salt meadows near New Haven.

Teauelle Oil Balm
THE WONDER OF THE WORLD
For Ladies

who sew or do housework, LEAURELLE OIL BALM is a delicate article for instantly softening the skin and allaying roughness; acts at once, and only one application necessary. When applied it dries in quickly, need not be washed off nor covered up. Its use does not interfere with the immediate handling of the most ribbony, silk or satin. Will not grease nor soil clothing. Will smooth and clear the most annoying skin or complexion. Gives the face a soft, smooth and elastic, and a delicate glow and freshness. These are the

FACE POWDERS
To neutralize the injurious effect of any powder used at night apply LEAURELLE in day time. If in face with LEAURELLE OIL BALM, then apply the powder. The effect is most elegant. Keeps skin soft, smooth and elastic. Try LEAURELLE INVISIBLE VELVET CREAM FACE POWDER. It is very fine. See at drug stores. Express prepaid on package of price. E. S. WELLS, Jersey City, N. J.

YOUR GLOVES
can be put on immediately after using LEAURELLE OIL BALM for Chaps or Rough Skin, since it dries instantly and needs no washing off. It is not sticky nor messy; will not soil or stain. It is the best for hands; pure, clean, colorless, harmless. A delightful toilet luxury. 50c and $1.00 bottles at drug stores or by Express. Express prepaid on package of price. E. S. WELLS, Jersey City, N. J.

Haven. The scientific name of this plant is sabatia, and an interesting legend connected with its history is that the Pilgrim fathers who found it about the famous rock, gave it its pious sounding name. It was, in reality, named after a famous botanist. It is still about Plymouth Rock. Many other plants were analyzed.

IN WOODBURY.
Mrs. Robert Peck, who died last Friday in Woodbury, for many years lived in Ansonia, where her husband, the late Robert Peck, was for a long time engaged in business. At the time of her death he resided on the corner of Winter and Summer streets. He was buried in Woodbury. Mrs. Peck, a short time after her husband's death, nearly ten years ago, removed to her former home in that town. The funeral was held in Woodbury, Tuesday afternoon, interment being in the family plot by the side of her husband.

MERIDEN POLICE PENSION FUND.
The Meriden policemen are about to renew their application to the common council to accept the provisions of the act of 1893 establishing a fund for the benefit of disabled and meritorious policemen. The application last year was defeated, solely because those interested had not first mentioned their intention to the police committee. This year's committee, it is understood, look with more favor upon the matter of a police pension fund, and Alderman Sloan, chairman of the police committee, will probably bring the matter up for discussion at the meeting to-night.

TROTTERING IN WATERBURY.
Waterbury, July 31.—Arrangements for the meet to be held September 3, 4 and 5 at the driving park under the auspices of the Waterbury Driving company are progressing finely and the prospects are that an enjoyable and successful season of trotting will result.

SIX THIEVES JAILED.
Greenwich, Conn., July 31.—Sheriff Fitzroy arrested and placed in jail here six tramps who, it is alleged, are members of an organized gang of thieves who have been operating in and about Cos Cob and Riverside for several weeks.

Sheriff Fitzroy has just recovered from the effects of the wound inflicted by Burglar Dean on the 9th inst., after a chase over the hills to Glenville and this is the first arrest he has made since that morning. He was well prepared for any emergency this morning and instead of taking with him a pistol which would not respond to his touch, he had with him two dangerous looking revolvers, which he has received from Greenwich admirers. Greenwich citizens have raised a purse of $1,300 which will be presented to Sheriff Fitzroy this week in recognition of his bravery in capturing Dean.

OIL DISTRIBUTING PLANT.
At last the work on the Standard Oil company's New England distributing plant at Wilson Point, South Norwalk, has begun, and the men are making the excavation. A small gang of men went to work, Tuesday, but operations in earnest did not begin until yesterday morning. Work will be pushed as rapidly as possible and about fifty men are being employed on the excavations. This force will be augmented as the work progresses. The tanks are to be ready for use, it is thought, by spring.

SHELTON'S FINE NEW BUILDING.
The work on the interior of the Plumb library is progressing rapidly and the racks for the reception of books in the library proper are being constructed. These are of the most approved style and latest design, being adjustable to various sized books and most convenient for handling the volumes. Everything about this fine memorial building is being done in the best manner possible, and when completed Shelton will have a public library building second to none of its dimensions in the country.

A NINE-YEAR-OLD GIRL CAPTURES A TWENTY-POUND TURTLE.

Derby, July 31.—Florence, the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Murphy of Seymour avenue, feels that she is quite a heroine. Monday while at play in the dooryard she came upon a monster turtle, which, as she approached, made an attack on her. She was at first frightened and then became calmed at the thought of winning a prize she would have as well as a nice dinner, providing she could capture the monster. She called her mother and the two succeeded in corralling the turtle.

Mr. Murphy was sent for and when he arrived he found the two holding the turtle down. It took but a moment for Mr. Murphy to secure a grasp on his caudal appendage and a little later his turtleship was led to the guillotine, where his head was decapitated, and tomorrow he will be served in soup. The turtle weighed twenty pounds.

WATERBURY'S TWENTY-ONE MAYORS.

The Waterbury American remarks: It was way back in the administration of Mayor Bennett that the scheme of preserving likenesses of the ex-mayors of the city was conceived. The plan went into operation and several months ago about half the photographs were obtained and enlarged and hung in the mayor's office. The first batch were presented to the city by the gentlemen themselves or their surviving relatives. It was found impossible to secure the remainder in the same way and therefore they have been finished at the expense of the city. Photographer Adair delivered the same yesterday and also those which he reframed to secure uniformity. There are twenty-one of these altogether and it is proposed to add to the list the mayors as their terms expire. The cost is slight and the collection of Waterbury's past executives is a valuable one, and the city officials are fortunate in being able to secure an unbroken collection. The ex-mayors of Waterbury are as follows. The city was incorporated May, 1853, the mayor being elected annually on the second Monday in June until 1871, since which time he is elected for two years from and after the first Monday in January next succeeding his election:

Julius Hotchkiss, June 10, 1853, to June 10, 1854.
David T. Bishop, June 10, 1854, to June 10, 1855.
G. W. Benedict, June 11, 1855, to June 9, 1856.
John W. Webster, June 9, 1856, to June 8, 1857.

THE BALLOON RALKED.
Only Got to the Tree Tops When it Collapsed.

The balloon ascension at Savin Rock yesterday was not exactly a success, as the balloon used was a new one, and difficulty was met with in inflating it so that it only rose nicely above the tree-tops when it began its descent. The ascent was made in the field back of Railroad grove and was witnessed by a large crowd, which was very orderly.

CHESHIRE.
July 31.—Rev. J. P. Hoyt, pastor of the Congregational church, preached a most interesting sermon before a large congregation Sunday morning. It being his fifth anniversary sermon, also the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination and installation as a minister of the gospel; also his birthday.

Rev. J. P. Hoyt and family started Monday for the seashore to spend a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence of New York have been the guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Paddock.

Two of the Misses Holmes of New York have been spending weeks as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bela E. Hotchkiss.

The band discoursed fine music Tuesday night about the streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Bannin, formerly of Cheshire, but now of New York, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Platt.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Doolittle of Bridgeport spent a few days last week with Mr. S. Trythall and family, returning to their home in Bridgeport on Monday.

Mr. Albert Bishop and wife were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hotchkiss.

Miss Ella Brennan is spending a few days at Indian Neck by the seashore.

Mr. F. Keough, proprietor of "Keough Hotel," West Cheshire, is the happy father of a ten pound boy.

Judge E. A. Smith has laid new shingles on the roof of his house, which has improved the looks.

For sale or rent is the sign on the house of Mr. M. D. Hotchkiss. This is a very desirable place for most anyone.

For some days past there has been activity in using means to suppress the elm tree beetles, and it may be well for owners of horses and drivers to be careful about their animals from browsing about trees that have been sprayed with beetle poison. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

Quite a heavy thunder storm visited Cheshire Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 3. We hear of no damage.

Quite a number of Methodists are at the Plainville camp meeting.

CLINTONVILLE.
Clintonville, July 31.—Mr. F. A. Mansfield of New Haven, Rev. G. A. Viets of Mt. Carmel and Rev. Charles F. Clarke of Whitneyville have recently conducted the Sunday evening service at the chapel with much acceptance to their hearers.

Mr. Lyman Bassett is taking his annual outing at Saratoga.

Our community is well represented in the vested choir of St. John's church, Walter Bishop, Alex. Smith, George Blakeslee, Robert and Lovell Clinton being members.

Mr. S. P. Thrasher, secretary and manager of the Connecticut Law and Order League, will give a gospel talk at the chapel Sunday evening, August 4. Until further notice the meetings will be held at 7:30 p. m.

"The Staff of Life,"

And it is daily consumed by the Rich as well as the Poor. It is found on the table of the occupants of a palace, as well as in the humble cottage of the "sturdy sons of toil." When it is properly made it confers strength and health to the user. But much of "the commercial article" which is used by the masses is a "delusion and a snare," and instead of producing a pleasurable feeling and nourishing the human frame, it causes a "bad taste in the mouth" and is conducive to "that tired feeling" which we read about in medical almanacs.

INNERS' GRAND BAND CONCERTS
At Savin Rock Next Wednesday Afternoon and Evening.

The last great novelty in the musical world is Inners' already famous descriptive musical spectacle, "A Day at the World's Fair," which, as the title implies, gives a realistic coloring to the memories connected with the most prominent features of the recent Chicago world's fair. The spectacle gives occasion for the appearance of the eight festival artists who accompany the band on its tour, together with a display of fireworks, battery of rapid fire electric artillery, military and other spectacular features. The work has created a sensation wherever heard. Arrangements have been made for excursions to come in over the railroads, and it is expected that an unusual number of out of town visitors will be in attendance during the festivals.

Miss Uppercrest—She's awfully self-sacrificing. Do you know, she stayed away from church last Sunday in order to sit with a sick friend. Mr. Cynicus—I don't see anything so self-sacrificing in that. Miss Uppercrest—Yes; but she had just got a new dress and hat.—Leslie's Weekly.

Medical.
ASTHMA.

IN the wide field of medicine nothing is more distressing to the sufferer than a severe attack of spasmodic Asthma. Occasionally, and wholly without warning, in the midst of apparent health, difficulty of breathing comes on, and for many minutes, sometimes indeed for hours, the patient gasps and fights for breath; his frame quivers, his countenance is bathed in moisture, distress of the most painful character takes possession of him. Anyone who had never seen a similar attack would fear that death must be at hand. The sufferer who has had other attacks is not alarmed. After a time breathing becomes natural, but before that happy state is reached he suffers torment.

"Kutnow's Anti-Asthmatic Powder or Cigarettes"
Will give the desired relief. If a patient has an attack on the street he can ward off the blow by lighting one of the cigarettes, and, after deeply inhaling the smoke, will breathe as freely as usual. Every package should bear our trademark.
